Justice Pat DeWine began his six-year term on the Supreme Court of Ohio on Jan. 2, 2017, following his statewide election in November 2016. An excellent writer, Justice DeWine is known for the quality and thoroughness of his legal opinions. His opinions reflect his strong belief in judicial restraint and his respect for the constitutional roles of the other coequal branches of government.

Justice DeWine has served at all levels of the Ohio judiciary. Prior to his election to the Supreme Court, Justice DeWine served for four years on the First District Court of Appeals, and prior to that, for four years on the Hamilton County Common Pleas Court.

Justice DeWine has a strong commitment to furthering the rule of law through education. He is an adjunct professor at the University of Cincinnati College of Law, where he teaches Appellate Practice and Procedure. In addition, he has taught undergraduate courses at the University of Cincinnati in Ohio government & politics and American courts.

Justice DeWine has strong academic credentials. He graduated from the University of Michigan Law School in the top 10 percent of his class with Order of the Coif honors. As an undergraduate student at Miami University, he maintained a perfect 4.0 grade-point average and received summa cum laude honors. He also was a member of the varsity track and cross country teams.

After law school, he was selected for a clerkship on United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. He served under the Honorable David A. Nelson, who had been appointed to the Sixth Circuit by President Ronald Reagan.

Justice DeWine understands the litigant's perspective, having practiced law for 13 years with one of Cincinnati's top law firms, Keating, Muething & Klekamp. He represented clients in appellate matters in Ohio and in federal courts across the country. He handled a diverse range of litigation matters, including mass tort bankruptcies, securities fraud litigation, and constitutional issues.

Other Public Service

Justice DeWine brings a unique perspective to the bench because of his public service as a county commissioner and a member of Cincinnati City Council.

As a member of the Hamilton County Board of Commissioners, he focused on reforming county government, lowering the tax burden, eliminating unnecessary bureaucracy and promoting public safety. He led the citizens' referendum that ultimately repealed the nearly $1 billion sales-tax increase that was enacted by his colleagues on the commission. The Reason Foundation named him an "Innovator in Action," along with such leaders as Rudy Giuliani and Jeb Bush, for his efforts to reform county government.

On Cincinnati City Council, he was known as a taxpayer watchdog, successfully rooting out wasteful spending and abuse in city government. He helped eliminate unnecessary regulations, led the effort to crack down on quality-of-life issues affecting city neighborhoods, and created a development fund that leveraged private capital to spur new housing development downtown and across city neighborhoods. He also led the Issue Four charter change that created a more accountable city government by allowing the city to hire the most qualified individuals for key positions in city government.

He was a founder of the Build Cincinnati reform group that successfully passed a charter amendment to allow Cincinnati voters to directly elect the Mayor.
